

Carousel Corner

By Larry Hoffman

It was pretty cold most of the week, but we put on our big-boy pants and went to work anyway. Drive by and take a look at the very-visible progress.

Bill Ryan's Highland College construction class got two walls of the party room standing. They came out in some very snappy weather to make progress for us. Blake at Pro-Build donated nails and house-wrap to the project. Thanks to all of them!

Congratulations to Bill for being named Educator of the Year at the Butte Elevated awards! Jordan Artis and I used Blue Range Engineering's 30-ton crane and boom truck to raise the second-stage 12-sided ring of the carousel room twenty feet above the floor and set 12 rafters to support it. A lot of credit goes to Jordan for putting in 192 bolts and nuts, many of them hard to start, bare-handed in zero-degree temperatures. It couldn't be done with gloves on and he never said a word of complaint. Any time he doesn't have class he's ready to work on the Carousel, sometimes going there alone to finish something. Butte can be proud of this Great Falls man!

We started out with a little scissor lift donated by Marty and Mark Salusso of Centennial Concrete, which got over half of the rafters up, but it didn't do well on the snow and ice. All I had to do was ask, and Cory Markovich and Markovich Construction donated the use of their bigger scissor lift, which made a big difference. Thanks to both!

OK, hunting season is over! Let's get some volunteers organized to fill in between the Highlands College schedule, and after their semester ends. Their work days are December 7, 9, & 10, from around 10 AM to 4 PM. We would welcome carpentry or ironworker volunteers to coordinate with them and fill in the vacant hours and days, including weekends. You don't have to commit to any specific times, just a willingness when it fits in to your schedule. If you are interested, please let the Carousel contacts listed below know, or contact me at 491-4660.

Butch Gerbrant did this week, good help. Thanks, Butch!

Be a part of building a Butte landmark. Pony Up for the Carousel!! Many thanks, one more time, to those who have, recently and over the many years!
